Revive Human Rights: Efforts and Consequences

(OCTOBER 2020)

AMITY LAW SCHOOL, NOIDA

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Amity Law School, Noida, (ALS) an institution of Amity University, Uttar Pradesh, is founded on real life challenges. The institution not only focuses on the legal aptitude but also on the practicality while constituting our students with the wide knowledge of law. ALS is fully geared to provide its students with an innovative and stimulating exposure. The students are outfitted to develop a legal temper. The high standards of legal education integrate their legal concepts with an incisive and practical understanding of law. The courses here develop the general skills and core competences essential for legal education. The focus is on development of the capacity to analyze and reason, oral and written communication, knowledge application, intellectual curiosity and professional integrity.

Background:

It is difficult to survive without equal and inalienable Human Rights. The basic foundation of all human rights is dignity, freedom, justice and peace in the world. The barbarous acts have outraged the conscience of mankind and threatened the proclaimed aspiration of the common people. It is essential to promote the development of friendly relations between nations. The dignity and worth of the human person provides equal rights for men, women and children. Member States of the United Nations have pledged themselves to promote universal respect and observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms and social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom.

Goal and Objectives:

- To improve the present conditions of Human beings deprived of liberty through capacity building. So that they can set goals in lives.
- To promote the effective participation of students in the study of detention conditions surrounding Human rights.
- To foster a comprehensive collaboration of all International Conventions involved in the reintegration process of favouring Human dignity.
- To assess the Contemporary Laws that are needed for the betterment of mankind.
- To impart legal awareness to the citizens so that they can participate in society building.
- To sensitise the people towards the deprived so that they can develop an empathic approach towards the weaker sections of the society.
- To highlight the different problem areas that still need to be improved to establish peace.
